

What Does Christmas Mean to You?

What does Christmas mean to you? Is it your relatives gathered around a fireplace? Is it caroling with friends in the streets? Does it recall the birth of Christ and all he has done for us? Is it Santa Claus, with gifts to be opened? Or, does it just mean a chance to be home with your family and friends for the holidays?

Whatever it is to you, chances are it isn't the same for our servicemen in Vietnam. Christmas in Vietnam can mean a lot more to our men there if they know we at home are thinking of them. That's why WNTC is sponsoring a Christmas Write-In for these young men.

There are gaily decorated mailboxes in Kinney's, Lewis House, the Knowles mailroom, and under the Christmas trees in Thatcher and the Union. All you have to do is drop a card addressed to the branch of the service you would like to see it go to in one of the mailboxes. WNTC will pay the postage and see that they get to a deserving G.I. in Vietnam.

If you like you can even send a letter to start a correspondence with a serviceman.

We would like to thank those who have already sent cards, and a reminder to everyone else: the last batch of cards will be sent Friday night, so be sure to drop all your cards off to be mailed prior to that time.
